EATING HABITS

Eating is one of the most essential and natural things since birth. There are good and bad eating habits that influence our health. The way we eat is also influenced by where we live. The Mediterranean diet is linked to Italy's cultural and gastronomic traditions that tend to survive more in the South than in the North of the Country, because of the better climatic conditions. The Mediterranean diet includes a daily consumption of vegetables, cereals, fruit, dairy products, olive oil and a weekly consumption of fish, meat, eggs and sweets. It's better drinking water and homemade wine, rather than sweetened drinks.

- What does the Mediterranean diet include?
 - a) Fish
 - b) Meat
 - c) Fruit
 - d) All of the above
